

PHYSICAL COMEDY Workshop

2 days

Teacher: Hilary Chaplain (New York City)
Clown – Actress – Director – Teacher

Directed to people with or without experience in Physical Comedy.

This class will explore physical comedy from a clown point of view to expand your physical vocabulary and develop your comic sensibilities.

We will develop tools to use in playing comedy by exploring the technique and use of slapstick, improvisation, partnership, comic timing, and accidents in solo, duo and group exercises. What makes it funny and what makes it repeatable are two questions we will tackle.

The exercises are designed to discover a true sense of pleasure and joy in play. Clown work is unique in that it allows us to explore the wide range of passions and expressiveness within us, from the ridiculous to the grotesque to the innocent, thus allowing us more freedom to access the many colors of our expressive selves.
